

INTEREST CALL - INDIGENOUS LANGUAGE RESOURCE

AS PART OF ITS INDIGENOUS LANGUAGE ADVOCACY EFFORTS, THE MANDATE OF THE FIRST NATIONS EDUCATION COUNCIL (FNEC) IS TO:

- support Indigenous language and culture preservation, revitalization, and promotion;
- guide communities through a language planning process that meets their needs;
- provide access to innovative and targeted technology fostering Indigenous language learning and cultural expression.

The FNEC is creating a pool of specialized Indigenous language resources to support member communities in a variety of areas related to language preservation and revitalization such as knowledge transfer planning, strategic development, training courses and workshops, as well as curriculum development.

- knowledge transfer planning
- strategic development
- training courses and workshops
- curriculum development.

POTENTIAL MANDATES:

Speakers

Lecturers

Trainers

Translators

Workshops leaders

Consultants

APPLICANT PROFILE:

Applicants must have a solid understanding of at least one Indigenous language spoken in Quebec; experience in education, linguistics or second language instruction; excellent communication skills and an interest in working with Indigenous Peoples.

SELECTION PROCESS AND SUBMISSION

FOLLOW-UP:

An acknowledgement of receipt email will be sent to you. The bank is updated annually. Submissions will be kept on file for one year. The FNEC reserves the right to reject any or all tenders.

In submitting a tender, the interested parties authorize the FNEC to share their submission with member communities for direct communication purposes.

TO SUBMIT YOUR INTEREST

Please submit your curriculum vitae or service offer to Valérie Gagné-Vollant, at vgagnevollant@cepn-fnec.com and enter Language resources bank in the subject line.